

Railway Coastal Museum Crossword Challenge

Across

1. This area of Newfoundland had wind so strong it could blow the train right off the track.
4. The Gulf ferry took passengers from North Sydney, Nova Scotia to this port in Newfoundland
8. The railway helped politicians communicate to the populace when they traveled to each _____ by train giving speeches.
10. What is the well-known distress signal sent by a boat in trouble?
12. A message sent by electric current through telegraph cables using a special code based on dots and dashes.
13. Most coastal boats were steam ships, which is why their names start with "S.S.". To make the steam, the engines burned _____ to heat up the water.
15. Because of _____, Newfoundland joined Canada, and the railway became a part of the Canadian National Railway.
17. The person who operated the locomotive and controlled the speed was called the _____.
19. When travelling on a coastal boat, people were sometimes invited to _____ with the captain of the ship.
21. On the "Newfie Bullet", people ate their meals in the dining _____.
22. The opening of the railway line increased logging by giving access to _____ that could not be reached before.
23. Coastal boats were used by fishermen heading to the rich fishing grounds of _____ for the summer.
24. Robert _____ was the man in charge of completing the railway across the island.

Down

2. Ships that took people, mail, and freight around the island were called "_____ boats."

3. A nickname for the passenger trains on the Newfoundland Railway was the "Newfie _____."
4. In 1905, a side-order of these small, round, green vegetables cost 10¢ on the dining car.
5. The coastal boats and train locomotives burned coal to make water into _____.
6. The train _____ was the building where trains picked up and dropped off passengers.
7. The staff in the Mail Car on the train was not employed by the Railway, but instead by the _____ Mail.
9. The coastal boats were an important way for people to get access to a doctor or _____.
11. The eastern terminus of the railway was in _____.
13. What is the name for the person in charge of the train?
14. The railway was an important link in getting access to new resources like wood and _____.
16. When a coastal boat is tied to a dock, it is "_____."
18. The railway was built using _____-gauge rails, instead of standard gauge.
20. Coastal boats use _____ code to send messages to the mainland.

